

MARKETS FOR ALL

Reducing Poverty amongst Women and Youth in Mozambique.

98.7%

- Approximately 4.3 million farmers, with 98.7 being smallholder farmers
- Each smallholder farmer with less than a hectare of cultivated land
- About 52,000 medium-size farmers
- Less than 730 large-scale commercial farms

Access to Markets

Women Smallholder Farmers lack adequate access to profitable, value-added markets

4 out of 5

of women in Mozambique only sell their produce at the local market

Mobile phone penetration 30%

Internet use rate 10%

Access to finance and credit 3%

Literacy levels
Men 34.6%
Women 64.2%

Improved Access to ICT

Will increase access to markets to women smallholder farmers by 50%

Training and Extension

Will improve participation of women in agricultural value chains by 80%

Policies

The assessment of effects and impacts of agricultural policies for market access

With improved access to ICT, credit and finance, knowledge, training and extension, women can improve their agricultural productivity and profitability by up to 50%.

